

1. ITWorx (Cairo)

Why ITWorx?

- Founded in 1994 and headquartered in Cairo, Egypt. IT History Society+2itworxcom-eu-west-1.s3.amazonaws.com+2
 - It offers high-end software & professional services (portals, BI, enterprise integrations, outsourcing) for global companies. IBIMA Publishing+1
 - Certified processes (ISO, CMMI) and full-cycle capabilities make it a credible partner for serious software work. Awex+1
 - For a candidate or someone seeking partnership, working/engaging with ITWorx means exposure to larger scale projects, global clients and mature practices.
-

2. Valeo Egypt (Cairo – Smart Village)

Why Valeo Egypt?

- It is the R&D and software development centre of the global Valeo Group, based in Egypt. Valeo+2Zawya+2
 - The centre develops embedded software modules and advanced mobility software, signalling high-tech and sophisticated product work. Valeo+1
 - For someone looking to be part of innovation, embedded systems, or high-end software (not just web apps), Valeo Egypt is a standout.
-

3. Softex Software House (Cairo)

Why Softex?

- Founded in 2004 in Cairo, Softex specialises in cloud-based ERP/CRM solutions for MENA region, plus web and hosting services. sl.linkedin.com+1
 - They have a focused product domain (ERP/CRM) which may provide more stable “product side” work rather than purely service/outsourcing. softexsw.com
 - For someone interested in business-applications, SaaS models, or regional market solutions, Softex is an interesting target.
-

✔ Summary Table

Company	Focus	Good For
ITWorx	Large-scale services & solutions	Exposure to global clients, enterprise software
Valeo Egypt	Embedded & advanced mobility software	Cutting-edge tech, high complexity
Softex	ERP/CRM & cloud business apps	Product-oriented work in regional market